

It is high time for number portability to be enacted for mobile phones. Lower prices and more choice will come. The industry should not be able to force a consumer to stay on their network simply because they cannot port their number to another carrier. I will definitely consider changing my carrier once mobile number portability is in place. I respectfully ask that you deny the CTIA Petition.